Bank Draft

What Is The Bank Draft Program?

The Bank Draft program from Berkeley Electric Cooperative makes paying your electric bill easier than ever. When you sign up for Bank Draft, BEC will automatically draft your checking or savings account for the amount of your monthly electric bill.

You'll still receive monthly statements showing kilowatt-hour usage and the amount due, but with Bank Draft, you won't have to write a check - ever! And your payments will be made on time, every time.

What Are The Benefits Of The Bank Draft Program?

With the Bank Draft program, you'll never have to remember to pay your bill. And since you'll receive a monthly statement, you can easily keep track of what was drafted out of your account. You won't have to write a check or pay for a stamp or remember to take the envelope to the mail box. With everything else there is to worry about, isn't it nice to have one thing you can cross off your list?

Levelized Billing

What Is The Levelized Billing Program?

With Berkeley Electric's Levelized Billing program, you can guard against large fluctuations in your electric bill caused by changes in the weather. Berkeley Electric considers your past usage and future energy costs. Then we bill you for that amount monthly. Because a "rolling average" method is used, your amount due may change somewhat from month to month, but the program is designed so that the change won't usually be a large amount.

How Can I Qualify For Levelized Billing?

The only requirement for participating in the Levelized Billing program is an acceptable credit rating on your account.

How Much Does It Cost To Participate?

The Levelized Billing program is free. There are no sign-up charges or monthly fees. All you need to do is keep your account current - which is easy if you also participate in our Bank Draft program.

What's more, your bill will show you the number of kilowatt hours of electricity you use each month, but you'll only pay for the average yearly usage.

To sign up for either program, please fill out the appropriate form and mail to your local district office:

Post Office Box 1234 • Moncks Corner, SC 29461

Post Office Box 128 • Johns Island, SC 29457

Post Office Box 1549 • Goose Creek, SC 29445
